Abstract

The project Want2B aims to disseminate and transfer methods, practices, tools and experiences to promote a wide range of entrepreneurial pedagogical methods and delivery systems, thus supporting an entrepreneurial mindset and culture in the individual and in organisations.

European Countries: Norway, Denmark, Sweden, Uk, Belgium, Greece, Czech Republic, Latvia and Portugal.

Partnerships: Buskerud University College; Køge Business College (Project Management), Køge Municipality; Älmhult Municipality Entrepreneurial Region Haganäs School; St Helens College; Belgium Mechelen University College; Centre of Lifelong Learning and Sustainable Development (DIA.VI.MA); SOU Catering College, Ministry of Education; Eurofortis; DREN - Ministry of Education

Objectives

- to design, develop and present an “Entrepreneurial Learning Menu” to new potential users allowing them the opportunity to pick and choose the entrepreneurial approaches, which fit their needs and requirements, respecting and accommodating the individual and organisational context/diversity - thus promoting flexibility in learning;
- to further extend and develop lifelong learning networks with other partners and stakeholders in an enlarged Europe – to share and generate new knowledge by cooperating and tackling a wide range of challenges, such as, labour market inclusion and understanding of diversity;
- to transfer best practice, key results and experiences from previous projects as well as integrating regional dynamics and perspectives, by disseminating, sharing and generating new knowledge on entrepreneurship, by enhancing an entrepreneurial culture, by promoting business ideas and by strengthening regional and international linkages to key stakeholders.

Keywords: Intrapreneurship; Entrepreneurship; Entrepreneurial Learning Menu
